TENNESSEE STATE RECREATION PLAN

REGIONAL PUBLIC INPUT MEETINGS

- * Are your recreation needs being met?
- * What are the awareness and appreciation of the environment and conservation issues in your region?
- * What are the economic benefits of recreation in your region?

These are just a few of the questions the State Recreation Plan will address. Every 5 years, the Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation coordinates the State Recreation Plan update, recognizing current efforts, trends and needs in recreation development and delivery statewide. Input on recreation issues by a wide spectrum of citizens, agencies and public officials will help prioritize recreation needs and guide distribution of grant funds, land acquisitions and facility/site developments.

Meetings have been scheduled across the state to facilitate public input. There will be two meetings at each site, one in the afternoon, from 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM, and one in the evening, from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM. These meetings are being organized in cooperation with the Tennessee Department of Economic and Community Development's Local Planning Offices. Please try to attend the meeting nearest you, and pass the word, because we will be "Planning Our Recreation Future---Let's Do It Together"
